Meeting documents

NEQMAP’s 6th Annual Meeting

“Opening the dialogue: Promoting inclusion and equity through quality assessment”.

13-14 December 2018, Bangkok, Thailand

- Flyer
- Agenda
- Participants list
- Presentation files

1. Introduction to the meeting
2. Update of NEQMAP and its activities
3. Update on NEQMAP research studies
   - Assessment of transversal competencies: potential resources in the Asian region
   - Current tool to assess transversal competencies in Vietnam
   - Integrating the findings from the National Assessment of Student Achievement into the policy process: an experience from Nepal
4. Inclusion and equity in curriculum, teaching and assessment

Lessons learned from international/regional large-scale assessments:

- Pacific Islands Literacy and Numeracy Assessment (PILNA)
- Southeast Asia Primary Learning Metrics (SEA-PLM)
- Programme for International Student Assessment for Development (PISA-D)

Looking at SDG 4.1 and 4.5 through the lens of curriculum, teaching and assessment

- Test accommodations and children with special needs: Experience from the Netherlands
- Multilingual education of ethnolinguistic minorities: Issues in language, curriculum, pedagogy and assessment
- Gender bias and its implication on student learning

Looking at SDG 4.1 and 4.7 through the lens of curriculum, teaching and assessment

- SDG Target 4.7: Progress & Issues and challenges
- “Optimizing Assessment for All” initiative
- Comprehensive Sexuality Education: Issues and priorities